ANTELOPE VALLEY HOSPITAL TO OFFER FREE FLU VACCINATIONS AT COMMUNITY HEALTH FAIR Saturday, October 3, 2009

(LANCASTER, CA – September 29, 2009) — Antelope Valley Hospital will offer free flu shots at the Community Health Fair on Saturday, October 3, 2009 on the hospital campus. Seasonal flu vaccinations will be available on a first come, first served basis for adults that are over 50 years old and older, have chronic conditions such as diabetes, high blood pressure, etc. and caregivers.

Free health screenings and information will be available in the High Desert Medical Group tent. Family-friendly activities include fitness demonstrations, bounce houses, face painting, snow cones, cotton candy, giveaways and a special appearance by the JetHawks' Kaboom. AV Hospital will conduct a blood drive, perform health screenings such as blood pressure, glucose, body mass index, carbon dioxide level and pulmonary function and offer much more information during the fair.

The fair will be held on Saturday, October 3, 2009 from 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. on the AV Hospital campus at the intersection of 15th Street West and Avenue J-5. For more information, please contact Julie Triggs at (661) 949-5530 or julie.triggs@avhospital.org. Admission to the fair is free for all attendees.
